The total revenue sharing money received to date is $152,927.00 which earned $2,755.75 in interest for a total of $155,682.75.

Selectmen are required to file a report to indicate how the town plans to spend the money for this fifth entitlement period.

195 OPENING

William Q. MacLean, Jr., majority whip of the Massachusetts House, has informed Selectmen that Mr. Cronin of the DPW has reaffirmed the opening of the entire highway into New Bedford by July 1, 1974. He said that Mr. Cronin is well aware of the traffic conditions on North Street but feels that the opening of the highway to Bridge Street, Fairhaven would cause a much more serious problem on Alden Road. He said an added problem is construction on Howland Road and Coggeshall Street, this being the main connector of the present terminus of Route I-195 through the town of Fairhaven.

Representative MacLean regrets not reporting a more favorable result but expressed the hope that the next 2 months will pass without difficulty.

This having passed, Mattapoisett will meet with the two remaining towns of the proposed region to determine their status before proceeding to act upon an application by Upper Cape Cable TV.

DOG COMPLAINT

Selectmen have received a complaint by Attorney Ferdinand B. Sowa, acting for Donald and Nancy Peltier of 11 Shady Oak Drive, Mattapoisett, that a dog owned by Mr. and Mrs. Peltier was killed by a dog owned by William and Arlene Ryan. According to the complaint, the dog also turned on Mr. Peltier and a second dog owned by the Peltiers was also killed by the Ryan dog. Mr. Sowa asked that the offending dog be put away.

WANT TO PUMP SEWAGE TO CAPE

SRPEDD has notified Selectmen that a proposal has been made to pump treated sewage waste water from the Boston area into southeastern Massachusetts and Cape Cod to irrigate large areas of vacant land. Tentative locations to receive the liquid effluent are Mansfield, Norton, Fall River, Freetown, Plymouth, Carver, Bourne and Sandwich. This is one of 5 different schemes from EMMA (Eastern Massachusetts Metropolitan Area) for the disposal of waste water.

are predicted on a random sampling of a tiny segment of the total population but with amazing accuracy. Town business is conducted by a fraction of the taxpayers but with a similar accuracy as reflecting the will of the majority. What more can you ask of any government?

This year's Mattapoisett Town Meeting made some difficult decisions in the face of climbing expenses. The fact that revenue sharing money was allotted to projects that otherwise would have required further tax assessment not only held the tax rate at its already dangerous level but even turned it down a fraction. This is the first glimmer of hope that the homeowner has had in a decade. To say that this one fact doesn't represent a major accomplishment does not conform to the facts. To say that perfect attendance at the town meeting would have changed the result is a highly questionable conjecture. I don't believe that any elected town meeting member, any elected official is going to represent the taxpayer better than he represents himself. For proof I offer the performance of the General Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The legislation from this source which continuously overrides and usurps the function of local government is the greatest threat to our local financial stability. When the State government legislates salary scales for some local officials, it sets a precedent for other town officials to shoot at - to equal or surpass. This inflationary spiral is in no way financed by the General Court which is chronically delinquent on almost all bills which that legislature owes by law.

If we were to point at a weakness in the government of our Republic, it would not be the town meeting. Rather it would be the irresponsible performance of State and Federal legislatures which consistently overspend and waste the resources of the people to such an extent that they have fueled the present inflation while at the same time making a pretense of acting against it.

It is a well known fact in the home of the private citizen that you can't spend more money than you have coming in. This information has never been passed on to our federal politicians who feel that a yearly revision upward of the debt ceiling will take care of any deficit they may incur. The State legislature passes the buck to the Governor, who is responsible for raising the money that the General Court spends, and to local government which is obliged to finance the State decrees which override local control.

The only truly responsible government, the only government that pays its bills, the only government that responds directly to the will of the individual is the local government. Some of the local governments are still fortunate enough to be run by the town meeting where anyone may have a voice.

It would be sobering indeed to feel that the individual citizen is not capable of participating in government but must depend on elected specialists to do it for him. It seems to me that somewhere back 200 years ago there was a document which guaranteed that this citizen should govern regardless of his qualifications.

When Ben Franklin emerged from the hall in Philadelphia, after the writing of the Constitution, a lady asked, "What have you given us Mr. Franklin?" He replied, "A Republic, madam, as long as you can keep it." Even Franklin wasn't sure. I wonder if Ben would recognize any part of the economics of the government which he helped to create with the sole exception of the town meeting.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

If the town of Mattapoisett has a new look after the weekend, credit the good Scouts of Troop 53 who turned out to clean up Neck Road, North Street, Crescent Beach, Harbor Beach and Prospect Road. The boys, assisted by highway department trucks lent by Manny Nunes, made a welcome contribution to the appearance of the town to prepare for the coming Memorial Day and the outdoor season just ahead.

Full Historic Day Planned

"NATHANIEL POPE DAY" IN FAIRHAVEN

On Saturday, May 18th, the Fairhaven Board of Selectmen in conjunction with the Fairhaven Historical Commission and the 4th Old Dartmouth Militia will again co-sponsor the re-enactment of the "First Naval Battle of the Revolutionary War" in the waters off Fort Phoenix in Fairhaven. The program in its entirety is titled "Nathaniel Pope Day".

The program is designed to honor and perpetuate the memory of Captain Nathaniel Pope, a Revolutionary soldier from the old town of Dartmouth, which then included New Bedford, Fairhaven, Acushnet, Dartmouth (present) and Westport. This daring exploit of forcing the first naval action of the Revolutionary War within the limits of the present New Bedford-Fairhaven harbor has for the past 199 years been allowed to pass almost unnoticed. With the advent of this country's bi-centennial celebration nearly at hand, the sponsoring organizations felt that because of the courageous action taken by a small band of local American patriots, the time was at hand to properly honor and recognize this daring event.

The festivities will commence with the gathering of colonial military companies in front of the Millicent Library in Fairhaven at 12:30 P.M. At 12:45 P.M. a brief flag-raising ceremony will take place in front of the "Old Pope House" on Center Street west of the library. A parade of colonial companies, including the invited guests will proceed to Fort Phoenix via Fort Street. Once there, the program will continue with the raising of colonial colors at Fort Phoenix. Highlighting the program prior to the reenactment will be the firing of the Fairhaven Historic cannon. This cannon was captured by John Paul Jones in a raid at Nassau in the West Indies in 1777. Later that year it was installed by the Fairhaven fort in a move to protect this harbor. In 1778, a large British force attacked this harbor and the fort was captured. The English "spiked" the cannon and knocked off their trunions thereby rendering them useless. Older citizens of this area will remember this same cannon as being placed muzzle-down at the northeast corner of Main and Center Streets in Fairhaven. Recently, with the help and skill of Arthur Fortier of New Bedford, a new carriage has been constructed and the vent or "touch-hole" has been cleared of the English inflicted spike. Other side events scheduled prior to the actual reenactment will be fife and drum musical selections to be played by the host, the 4th Old Dartmouth Militia Fife and Drum Unit, as well as by the Independent Light Dragoon Fife and Drum of Tiverton, Rhode Island, and the Taunton Colonial Minutemen Fife and Drum of Taunton, Massachusetts. An exhibition of artillery firing by the Ancient & Honorable Newport Artillery of Newport, Rhode Island will follow.

Other displays to be offered to those in attendance will be the technique of making colonial musket-balls and various accoutrements of that period. The Apponogansett Volunteers of Dartmouth (present) will exhibit a display of "Hawk Throwing" (tomahawk). A brief exhibit of close-order drill by the British 64th regiment of foot under the National Commander, the Honourable Colonel Fred Wahl of White Plains, New York. The 4th Old Dartmouth Militia will allow a number of observers the opportunity to handle an authentic reproduction of a flint-lock musket.

The firing of the fort's heavy seacoast cannon will signal the start of the re-enactment of the "First Naval Battle of the Revolutionary War" at approximately 3:45 P.M. Highlighting this mocked battle will be the appearance of the Massachusetts Colonial Navy of Fall River, Commodore Sam Williamson, commanding. The 4th Battalion Company of Massachusetts, 64th Regiment of Foot and the 4th Old Dartmouth Militia and elements of other invited units will man the ships in this naval engagement.

Immunization Clinic

An immunization clinic will be conducted for pre-school and school children on Wednesday, May 22nd. Hours will be from 9:30 to 11 A.M. at Center School, and 1:30 to 2:15 P.M. at Old Hammondtown School. Pre-school children may attend either one. It would be helpful if parents of pre-school children could notify either the school nurse or the district nurse of their intention to attend.

Immunizations to be administered include the following: DPT (diphtheria, pertussis and tetanus), SOPV (Sabin oral polio vaccine), and measles. These are required for admission to school. In addition, shots for mumps and rubella (German measles) will also be given. These are not yet required, but parents are urged to have the children immunized to protect them from acquiring these diseases.

Permission slips are available in both schools for children now attending school. Parents must give written permission for students to

The Southeastern Circa (Committee for Inter-Regional Councils on Aging Region VII) held its spring regional conference on Tuesday, May 7th, at the Holiday Inn of Hyannis.

Mrs. Sophie Sterling, Mrs. Gloria Rounds and Miss Emily Perry represented the Mattapoisett Council.

Mr. Christian W. Schembri, chairman of the S.E. Circa, presided. He was very impressive and eloquent in speaking. Mr. Richard Rogers, assistant secretary executive office of Elder Affairs, was most informative as were many others introduced by Joseph L. Greany, community coordinator, executive office of elder affairs.

It was very gratifying to be present with such a large group of dedicated people concerned for the older American.

ROCHESTER SENIORS DENY BARRING OF EX-SELECTMAN

Regarding statements in newspapers made by former Selectman Mr. Maurice A. Fuller of Rochester that he was "blackballed" from membership to the Senior Citizens Club of Rochester, when notified that the club was unable to accept membership at the present time due to lack of space; also that "he could not accept chairmanship to Council on Aging because he and his wife were not welcome as members" when offer of town chairman to Council on Aging was made by the Selectmen of Rochester.

of the club, on behalf of the Executive Board, issued a statement denying a "blackball" action. The statement:

Members of the Executive Board wish to inform the public that no senior has ever been "blackballed" from membership to the club as stated by Mr. Fuller.

The club was formed in May 1972 and permitted by the Rochester Women's Club to use the upstairs room of the clubhouse for senior monthly meetings where card tables are used with seating arrangements for games and refreshments.

Every senior, including Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, had been invited to join the club several times by mail and by members.

With planned programs and activities by Samuel Spindler as president since October 1973, the membership and attendance at the meetings were greatly increased and more tables used to accommodate the members. This has caused some difficulty with members who are unable to walk between the tables.

Executive board meetings were held to study the by-laws, also possible changes in seating arrangements. It had been decided by the board that membership be temporarily closed until the changes could be made with said changes not to cause discomfort to the members.

Prospective members who had been told the same as Mr. and Mrs. Fuller were understanding and are listed for future membership.

Mr. Fuller also stated that "he could not accept chairmanship to the Council on Aging because they were not wanted as members." One does not have to be a member of any senior group to serve on Council on Aging.

It was unfortunate that Mr. Fuller had not used the proper procedure in meeting with the officers of the club for an explanation of the letter he had received before making public statements which were detrimental to the Senior Citizens of Rochester.

Members who have worked so hard to help form this club so that the elderly may enjoy an afternoon a month of pleasure and friendship did not deserve that kind of publicity.

Mattapoisett District Nurses

This is the fourth and last part of the series about the Mattapoisett District Nurses by Margaret Sylvester.

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

As Mattapoisett grows so do our services. The Mattapoisett District Nurses have many plans. Some will become realities this year.

Our monthly Senior Citizen Clinics have been successful so we are going to continue them and offer more services. It is hoped that a program will be started by Fall where all Mattapoisett residents over 70 years of age will be visited by the nurses, free of charge. At this time the nurse can find out if there are any medical problems, what is needed and answer any questions.

Screening clinics for such things as hypertension (high blood pressure, cancer, glaucoma, etc.,) are being planned.

If enough people are interested we could
